WILL CHANGE OVER

It would seem logical to guess that unrest and unpredictable production in the coal business will seek other sources of fuel than coal. The change-over to fuel oil has already gathered momentum, and now there may be a rush to change to natural gas. The business and industry of this great nation must be steady, it cannot be left to the uncertainty of knowing from day to day whether you will have fuel and power for operation. The only answer to the situation John L. Lewis has brought upon the nation, is to get out from dependence on coal, and so as quickly as possible. And if this brings unemployment and poverty to the 40,000 coal miners and their families, it is regrettable, but it is also true that their plight will be true to their shortsightedness in not realizing that our complex economy depends on a steady and dependable supply of fuel and power.

GOOD LEADERSHIP

Leadership is tested in times of emergency. Virginia is fortunate in having at the helm of its state government men who know how to approach tough problems. People will gladly cooperate with the state in whatever steps are necessary to conserve existing supplies of coal, knowing the state will not ask of its citizens sacrifices that are not necessary. The closest pinch will be on generation of electricity, and we are confident that every effort is being made to get maximum benefit from every lump of coal.

QUESTION BOX

From Willis Thomson, principal of Isaac E. Young high school, New Rochelle, N. Y.: How are there three odd names for you? Ovid Parody is the able principal of the Drum Hill junior high school of Peekskill. Otto Huddle is a teacher at Bellair high school. Col. Charles Pulkman Porter has just returned to civilian life. He is holder of the D.S.C.

St. Louis: I have a musical dictionary which gives the pronunciation of the name of the French composer, Saint-Saens, as "saint-sa-eh-n." Can that be right?—F. W. Answer: Never! Saint-Saens is the French name and is pronounced by the Colby symbol (s)-sai-eh-n. The vowel sound of Saint is "sai" nasalized; the vowel sound of Saens is "eh-n" nasalized. Say: sai-sai-SAIN-ESS.

Newton Falls: What authority is there for pronouncing "discipline" as "di-sip-lin"?—Mrs. I. J. H. Answer: The word "discipline" is pronounced as "di-sip-lin" in the first syllable only; DISS-i-plin.

Fresno: Is there any way of getting it across that "hacienda" is not a Spanish-type house?—M. L. B. Answer: Hacienda means "landed property, as a plantation, farm, or ranch; estate; fortune; wealth." The correct Spanish pronunciation is: ah-SYEN-dah (initial "h" in Spanish is silent).

YOUR FORTUNE FINDER

To learn your "fortune" for this week from the stars, write in the letters of the alphabet corresponding to the numbers on the line of the astrological period in which you were born. You will find it fun.

A LETTER ON CHRISTIAN LIVING

6 LESSON TEXT—Acts 19:23-30. Ephesians 6:10-12. MEMORY SELECTION—Finally, my brethren, be strong in the Lord, and in the power of his might—Ephesians 6:10.

The war is never over for the Christian. He is called to a constant struggle against the world, the flesh and the devil, which grows no smaller and peace continues so long as he lives or the Lord tarries. Paul, who had now set out on his third missionary journey, was in the midst of a long and arduous journey. He was in the midst of a long and arduous journey. He was in the midst of a long and arduous journey.

The decisions of the various bodies that select the Nobel prize winners are therefore unimportant. They should not be taken too seriously. The prize of the Nobel prize is not a prize of the Nobel prize. The prize of the Nobel prize is not a prize of the Nobel prize.

Nevertheless, it is remarkable that the last five American scientists have been singled out as recipients in one year. The peace prize has been awarded to Americans who have worked for world peace and the Nobel prize has been awarded to Americans who have worked for world peace and the Nobel prize has been awarded to Americans who have worked for world peace.

Personal Paper—You have your own stationery made up with your photo printed in the upper left-hand corner, or you have it engraved with your name, instead of your initials. Or—most personal of all, you kiss a lip-print on the paper and preserve it with a coating of colorless nail polish. More impressive than the usual "X."

Oh, creature fair, calm and serene, Covert Girl on the magazine, Smiling out for my inspection, Your life must be indeed perfection. It's you the Smooth Joe Always takes out.

French Decorate Five U. S. Officers in Berlin Rites. BERLIN—Five American officers were decorated by Gen. Pierre Koenig, French commander in Germany, at French headquarters. The officers are Col. B. L. Milburn, Fayetteville, Ark.; Lt. Col. F. P. Alexander, Terre Haute, Ind.; Lt. Col. William Wilson, Norman, Okla.; Capt. Rhett H. Novell, Orlando, Fla.; and Chief Warrant Officer Raymond D. Gooch, American Lake, Wash.

Tragedy Teen. Oh, creature fair, calm and serene, Covert Girl on the magazine, Smiling out for my inspection, Your life must be indeed perfection. It's you the Smooth Joe Always takes out.

"GAY GADGETS"
By NANCY PEPPER
PEN PAL-ITATION

The way you clutter up the U. S. mails is a national problem. Even with so many of the boys back from overseas (and isn't it about time, too?) You're still making the postman ring twice for letters to and from pals from all corners of this and other countries. Here are your preferences in paper: Your selections in stationery.

Musical Manuscripts—You love the new writing papers that has a different song title at the top of each sheet and the first line of the song written all round in border effect. You pick the song that fits the situation. For instance, "I Can't Begin to Tell You" would mean you can't begin to tell him, we suppose.

Novelty Note—You like those tricky decorations—like a picture of two sailors at the top of the paper, with the title "Gobs of Love." And you're in love with the paper that has a picture of a girl in a swimsuit, with the title "Gobs of Love." And you're in love with the paper that has a picture of a girl in a swimsuit, with the title "Gobs of Love."

Expect Opposition—It Will Come (Acts 19:23-30). The comfortable and contented Christians of our day who just want to be left alone to carry out their worship are certainly not related to the real Christians of Paul's time. The enemy of our souls is often content to let us go on in comparative peace as long as we do not put up the banner of a holy life and service in God's army.

Oh, creature fair, calm and serene, Covert Girl on the magazine, Smiling out for my inspection, Your life must be indeed perfection. It's you the Smooth Joe Always takes out.
